INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

WILSON MALE AND FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL,

WILSON, N. C.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

The Principal has associated with him Professor AVERETT and LADY, of Halifax County, Virginia.

Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is a teacher of many years experience—was Professor of Mathematics in the Danville Female College until he resigned his position to take his place in the Confederate army. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed so soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARRINGTON.

All the teachers will reside in the College Buildings. Young ladies can obtain board with the Principal, and boys can secure board with private families in the town.

The session will comprise twenty weeks. The terms per session will be—

Primary Department,	$15 to $20
Higher English Branches,	25
Latin and Greek, each,	5
French and Drawing, each,	10
Music and Painting, each,	25
Board, exclusive of lights and washing,	60
Incidental expenses,	1

The above prices are in specie or its equivalent, one half in advance.

Pupils will be allowed to attend church according to the wishes of their parents or guardians.

Debts cannot be contracted without permission from parents or guardians.

Pupils boarding with the Principal must furnish one pair of sheets, pillow cases, blankets or comforts and four towels.

The government will be mild but firm.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. Editors.

Monday Evening, Dec. 17, 1866.

Territorial Governments.

The proposition of Southern Loyalists and of some Radicals in Congress to reduce the Southern States to a territorial condition, is one so monstrous, so anti-Republican, and finds so little countenance in the Constitution of the United States, or so little support from right reason or justice, it is difficult to account for its origin, except in the vindictiveness and low conceits of the mere partizan, bent upon obtaining his object at the largest expenditure of malice, added to the debased purposes of personal ambition. We can conceive how the ultra abolition negrophilist, prompted by a pseudo-philanthropy, blinded by a false philosophy, may have wrought himself up to a pitch of frenzy, with the idea of universal manhood equality, and that the essence of human liberty and human progress lies in the perfect equality of the races, could form such a scheme. With them the "higher law" fanaticism, overleaps all barriers—"might gives right," and the "end sanctifies the means." Hence we are not disposed to attach the same amount of moral obliquity and perverseness, to the Northern mind which in its developments of progress, overrides all human law, ctatutary or organic, all the principles of justice and right, to secure in the end what it deems to be a greater good.—But there is no room for charity or apology for Southern men, who to gain a mere political or partizan advantage, or to gratify their malice and unholy ambition, will join hands with them in the degradation and annihilation of their native States.

Such a proposition at any period since the formation of the Federal government, until within a few years, would have been regarded in this country under any circumstances, by sane men of all shades of party, as the emanation of a maniac. It could scarcely have been passed off as an ordinary joke, much less have been seriously entertained by any dozen men in the Union. Men like Mr. Stevens and Mr. Julian, are prepared for anything, even without any show of reason, if it suit their purposes and aims; but we hope for the honor ot the nation, the number is small.

The disfranchisement of one of the United States by the sisterhood of States, by any legitimate process, is an impossibility. The Federal Union has ample power in our view of the character of the government, legitimately to preserve its unity, but there is no shadow of law or right, by which even the smallest of the thirty-six, can be disfranchised or obliterated. One, or a dozen, or twenty, may attempt to separate from the whole. The attempt is purely revolutionary, and can only be effected by proving to be the stronger party. Failure closes up the breach sought to be made, and the attempt only brings guilt upon the active agents of the revolution, not upon the State itself. Hence, President Johnson spoke wisely when he said, "a State cannot commit treason."

Mr. Stevens and those who act with him, hold that the Southern States were conquered States and all their inhabitants are consequently captives to the United States,—are not traitors nor liable for the crime of treason, and, hence, are not amenable to law, but to the will of the conqueror or the law making power of the government. If this be so, then the eleven States had the right to secede—South Carolina had the legal right to make war upon the government, and the moment they passed the ordinances of secession, they were rightfully independent nations, and had the right to form and did form a bona fide Confederate government.—If so, upon what plea can he justify Mr. Lincoln's first proclamation and the war made upon the South? The world knows that the South desired no war. She desired nothing so much as to be let alone. But the government and the whole North denied this doctrine in toto.—Every branch of the government, its whole action and the whole North, denied the right to secede; claimed the right to compel their allegiance and to force their submission to the Constitution and the laws. We admit the correctness of the doctrine—always admitted it. The U. S. government during the war charged them with being recusant and rebel States and since the war, the entire official action of the Executive, the Judiciary and the Congress, has continuously acknowledged them to be States and nothing else but States.

The truth is, the whole scheme is an after thought—another "higher law" phantasm, with which to frighten the South into the most abject and degrading terms. The whole scheme of territorial reduction is gotten up to prevent the Southern States from participating in the next Presidential election, and to force upon them universal negro suffrage. The bill presented by Mr. Stevens at the instance of the North Carolina loyalists, does not meet Mr. Stevens' approval or of any of the ultra-Radicals, nor can it receive the support of those in Congress who have any respect whatever for the Government or the Constitution.

The Delegation Returned.

We learn that Prov. Gov. Holden and "Paunleroy Taylord" returned from Washington this morning in high spirits. How many "fish ponds" friend Jeemes contracted to construct during the trip, we have not learned; but understand that the Prov. Governor speaks very confidently of the success of his territorial bill.—We learn that he says our telegram was incorrect in intimating that the present State government would be declared null at once. He thinks it will require until about next September to get the new machine a-going and that it will work like a clock. We would suggest to uncle Thad. to get a better engineer the next time, or the thing will run in the ground again.

Relief for the People.

We observed some days ago, that quite a number of propositions were before the Legislature for the relief of the people, to all of which, there were objections, and urged the necessity of concentrating the efforts of the Legislature upon some general scheme which might effect the greatest good to the greatest number We alluded to the inefficieny of the Stay Law as a remedy and to the bad effects of all Stay Laws. This led a writer in the Wilmington Journal to charge us with pandering to the prevailing spirit of repudiation in the State, as if we had by any expression of ours given the slightest encouragement to that spirit. The writer must have either very carelessly or very seldom read the Sentinel, to have reached any such conclusion.

The Sentinel was the first paper in the State that opposed the repudiation of the State war debt, for the reason among others, that nothing could so much tend to excite the spirit of general repudiation as that act. Nothing but the imperious demand of the Federal government, that it should be done, as one of the conditions of reconciliation, could have led us to yield our assent to it. On all other occasions we have borne our uniform testimony against every other species of repudiation. It is strange therefore, that we should be charged with pandering to that spirit.

We have, however, felt none the less concerned for the relief of the people, and have proposed the only remedy which we considered legitimate, to effect their release, honorably, from the crushing weight of individual indebtedness.

We humbly conceive that the Legislature has no legitimate authority, nor has a Convention, while performing simply legislative acts, to attempt any relief to the debtor class, which interrupts the due course ot the ends of justice and law, and which jeopards the rights or legal interests of the creditor. We submit that all Stay laws have done this to a greater or less extent, and, hence, in so far, are injurious. The motives of the late Convention in passing the Stay law, are unassailable. It designed relief. But it is palpable the relief it affords is to the few, while it injures the many. The taunt, that debtors who cannot discharge their obligations in six years, are poor creatures and worthless, is cruel sympathy to that large class of honest debtors, who never can pay dollar for dollar,—a condition forced upon them, not by their poor management, but by the misfortunes of the war. There are many debtors who can pay if let alone and are encouraged, in less than six years, and will do so, even under the Stay law, but who can ill afford to pay their debts and large Court costs besides; while there are many others forced to meet the first instalment and costs, will be compelled to place their property in market at such an enormous sacrifice at the present time, as cuts off all hope of paying their debts, leaving them penniless. A small class of debtors only will find themselves beneficiaries under the Stay law, to whom its delays will be profitable.

Such were the feelings of prostration under which all classes labored after the war, that no one thought of making suit in those cases where there was little hope of success, especially where the debtor enjoyed the public confidence. Where debtors had means, and they gave assurances of ultimate payment, no one was disposed to press them. Where they had means, but manifested a determination to avoid payment and yet retain all their property if possible, they were entitled to no benefits of the stay law. The passage of the stay law, however, offered hope and a stimulus to all classes of creditors, and hence the general disposition to collect by stress of law. It is to this effect of the stay law at present, that we urge the strongest objection; and we apprehend it is at this point only, that sensible people hope for relief from legislative interference. If the people are to be compelled to pay under the operations of the stay law, the immunity which honest men desire is, that their property shall not be sacrificed, at a time like this, when it is unavoidable, if thrown upon the market.

To that large class who cannot pay dollar for dollar, it is simply deluding them, to hold out legislative aid or any benefit from the stay law. Their only hope is in the reasonableness, sympathy and clemency of creditors, who will all find it to their advantage to take a part of a loaf rather than no bread. Debtors in this condition cannot too soon offer the best inducements they can to creditors, and creditors cannot too soon accept them, rather than risk the uncertainties of the future and the expense of the Courts.

MISTAKEN AGAIN.—If we mistake not after the recent State elections, the Standard claimed that the Howard Amendment would have about 30 supporters in the Legislature. We expressed the opinion that it would get less than 20 votes. The result shows the Sentinel was right, as usual.

COLORED EMIGRATION.—There are many unmistakable evidences that the colored people of this State do not intend to remain permanently on the poor lands of North Carolina.—They are seeking for better homes and will find them. We learn from the Charlotte Times that about 400 men and women left that city on yesterday for Mississippi.

Recently about 800 left Charleston for Liberia, in Africa.

The intelligent correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says:

"The proposition submitted by Stevens in the House this morning, providing certain conditions upon which alone North Carolina can lawfully present herself for admission to representation—that is by upsetting her present Government and forming a new one, through a Convention of 120 "loyal citizens as delegates," I have good authority for saying has not been sanctioned by a Republican caucus, and is presented on his own responsibility, backed only by the extreme wing of the House."

Twelve hundred emigrant wagons from South Carolina have recently passed through Crockett, Texas.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Dec. 17.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hudson of the Methodist church.

On motion of Mr. McCorkle the rules were suspended and the bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Gaston county passed its several readings.

Mr. Cunningham, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill for the relief of disabled soldiers, recommended its passage.

Mr. Avery, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to amend sec. 10 of 111 chapt. of the Revised Code, offered a substitute for the same, which was adopted, and on his motion the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

Mr. McCorkle, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to incorporate the Merchants and Planters Mutual Benefit Company, ask to be discharged from its further consideration.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Hall, a bill to enable the city of Wilmington to fund old debts, &c.

Mr. Leach offered the following:

Resolved, That the committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the propriety and necessity of having regard to the financial embarrassment of the people of the State, of suspending, for the term of two years, all judgments and executions, whether in any of the several courts or before Justices of the Peace, and also all actions of debt, whether sued on or not, and report by bill or otherwise. Adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The bill for the relief of honest debtors was taken up. Mr. Speed supported the bill in a speech of considerable length, and the question arising on the passage of the bill on its second reading, on motion of Mr. Covington the yeas and nays were called and the bill was rejected by a vote of 27 nays to 15 yeas.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The engrossed bill, from the House, to enable the Fayetteville or Western Railroad Companies to complete their road to some point on the North Carolina Railroad was taken up and discussed at some length. Messrs. McLean, Leach and Hall supported the bill and Messrs. Wiggins and Wilson opposed it; before coming to a vote the Senate adjourned on motion of Mr. Wilson.

[The types committed a blunder on Saturday last in the amendment offered by Mr. Berry, to the amnesty bill. Mr. B. moved to amend so that its provisions shall extend only to June 1st 1865 instead of Jan. 1st 1866.]

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Monday, Dec. 17.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mason, of the Episcopal Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Sundry reports were made from Standing Committees, which will be noticed in detail hereafter, when action is had.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Daniel; a bill for the relief of Jas. S. Snow, Sheriff of Halifax county.

By Mr. Long; a bill for the more perfect administration of the criminal laws of the State; also

By Mr. Long; a resolution in favor of soldiers maimed in the late war.

ON CALENDAR.

A bill to exempt from taxation the polls and property of disabled soldiers, and the property of widows in certain cases, was put on its second reading.

Mr. Scoggin offered amendments extending the purview of the bill, so as to exempt from taxation the persons and property of soldiers of the United States who are citizens of this State.

Mr. Durham opposed the amendment. The United States was able to provide for its soldiery, and already awarded pensions to such as were disabled in the war. Confederate soldiers were regarded as traitors, their graves were unmarked, and no government relief would be accorded to them.

The amendment was rejected, and the bill passed its 2nd and 3rd readings. On motion of Mr. Hutchison, the vote by which the bill passed its final reading was reconsidered, in order that the amendment offered by Mr. Scoggin (rejected on second reading) might be reconsidered. This motion prevailed, and after further discussion, in which Messrs. McNair, Durham, Richardson and Russ, opposed the amendment, both bill and amendment were laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Waugh.

Mr. Durham introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That inasmuch as gentlemen are, or appear to be, deterred from voting on ordinary matters of legislation, through fear of the Federal Government, the Governor be requested to communicate with said Government, and ascertain what legislation will please them, and that we proceed to enact such laws and no other; and that hereafter, if members shall be at a loss what votes to give, they shall be allowed time to telegraph to Washington for instructions. Laid on the table on motion of Mr. Holderby.

Mr. York, by leave, introduced a bill to amend the sixth section, Chapter 71 of the Revised Code, entitled "Mills and Millers."

The special order, viz: a bill to establish a Penitentiary, was postponed, upon motion of Mr. Hutchison, until the 4th Monday of January next.

A bill to amend an act to establish work houses, or houses of correction in the several counties of the State, was put on its second reading, and its further consideration was postponed until the 4th Tuesday of January next, on motion of Mr. Kenan.

Mr. Waugh (by leave) introduced a bill concerning a Penitentiary, which was read and referred. [Provides for a reference of the Penitentiary question to the people for decision.]

Mr. Peebles (by leave) introduced a bill to amend an act authorizing the Roanoke Navigation Company to discontinue the use of their canal around the grand falls of the Roanoke river, to make sale of their real estate, water power, &c.

A bill to re-enact certain sections of the Stay Law of 1862, was laid on the table on second reading.

A bill to allow fees to justices of the peace in certain cases, was laid on the table on motion of Mr. Holderby, on second reading.

A bill to provide for including the value of stamps in the taxation of costs, was amended and passed its second reading.

A bill for the relief of the estate of L. O'B. Branch, dec'd., and a bill in favor of Kiah P. Harris, passed their several readings.

A resolution in favor of disabled soldiers, was laid on the table on second reading.

A bill for the relief of the people (introduced by Mr. Russ) was put on its second reading.—[This bill provides for the establishment of courts of audit and arbitration for the settlement of accounts, &c.]

Mr. Russ addressed the House in support of the bill.

Messrs. Morehead and Lyon opposed the bill, believing that it would increase litigation and afford no substantial relief to the people. After further discussion the bill was referred, on motion of Mr. Lyon, to the Judiciary Committee, and the House adjourned.

[The Reporter is requested to state that Mr. Whitfield, of Cleaveland, is detained at his room by severe indisposition.]

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Position of Stevens—The Trial of Jefferson Davis—A Rampant Radical Jury to be Found in Washington—Negro Sufrage in the District—The National Banks.

[Cor. Richmond Examiner.]

WASHINGTON, December 13.

The position taken by Thaddeus Stevens in regard to the leaders in the late civil war, on the part of the Confederate States, to wit—that they were belligerents—not traitors—is the same which he has heretotore held. His entire policy towards the South is governed by the assumption that in a civil war there is no treason; that the Confederate States became an alien and hostile power, and that the Federal subdued it, and now has all the rights of conquest over it. Mr. Stevens is in a small minority, however, on this question. So he always was. Therefore, there is nothing new, either in his position, or in the fact that his party do not stand upon it.

The bill before the House, to which Mr. Stevens objected, and which will certainly pass, will simply prevent the escape of any person from the penalty of treason and rebellion, under the provision of the act of 1790, limiting the time within which an action may be brought for treason to three years after the alleged treasonable act.

Mr. Stevens believes, as many do, and freely declared to the House that no one can be convicted of treason for taking part in the rebellion. He asserts that Jefferson Davis cannot be convicted—that no one can be convicted of treason under laws which do not exist at the time when the alleged treasonable acts were committed.

I have ascertained from authentic sources, that Mr. Davis will be brought to trial under the indictment for treason soon after the close of the present term of the United States Supreme Court, probably in May next.

He will remain at Fortress Monroe till then. Therefore, until after the trial, there will be no chance for his enlargement on bail or otherwise. He will either be acquitted or the jury will disagree. He will certainly not be convicted of treason. Congress may, in anticipation of the results of a trial at Richmond, before a jury of that vicinage, pass some law to remove the case to this city, and have him tried by the criminal court of this District with a rampant Radical jury.

It is now settled by the Senate that the District of Columbia shall be subjected to the first experiment of universal and unrestricted negro suffrage. The bill, as it will pass, will disfranchise all white persons who left the District for the purpose of joining the Confederates. The attempt to extend the right of suffrage to females did not succeed; but some Senators declared that it was to come very soon.

Senator Wilson declared that the battle for universal suffrage had been fought and nearly won. But the fight is not yet over, as Mr. Wilson will find. The Radicals may temporarily control and hector over this defenceless District, but a re-action is at hand, and some four or five years hence Radical rule will be destroyed, root and branch.

Congress, notwithstanding the ardor with which they pursue their revolutionary projects, will take a recess over the holidays, as usual.

The amendment reported from the Committee on Banking and Currency to the National Bank act, restrict those banks in many particulars. They are required to redeem their issues at New York and at their own counters. No bank is to be a depository of public money in a place where there is a sub treasury. Fifteen millions are to be taken pro rata from Northern banks to be allotted for new banks in the South.

KAPPA.

Territorializing the South.

A NORTHERN VIEW OF THE SUBJECT.

(From the New York Evening Express.)

The Radical plan now seems to be, and with some prospect of temporary success, to take away even from the old Thirteen States, such as Virginia, North and South Carolina, and Georgia (parties to the Revolution of 1776, and the Constitutional compact of 1787) their State Charters, Constitutions, Governments, Rights of all kinds, and to reduce them to Territories, such as Arizona, Idaho, or Montana, to be governed not by Governors appointed by the President, but by Governors or Satraps, created by Congress, or some agent of Congress.

There are some things to be considered, even if a Rump Congress could override the veto, and "enact" all this.

1st. It is a Judicial Question, to be determined, not by Congress, nor by the President, but by the Supreme Court of the United States. Five Judges there can stop any such Radical revolutionary proceeding.

2d. It becomes the Northern holders of the bonds of Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, and others of the ten territorialized States, to consider, if as State corporations these ten States are extinguished, as contemplated by the Radicals, whether exists any corporation, or any body, to pay their State bonds and State obligations.

The ten Southern States may, perhaps, be thus freed from their debts by the Radicals, very large amounts of which are now in Northern hands, and so perhaps, what is intended as a curse for them, may turn out to be a blessing in disguise.

All we have to say to the South, just now, is, stand firm, stand still, under all this Radical thunder and lightning in Washington. It will kill more Northern than Southern men in the end. Endurance is now the great virtue needed in the South.

The precedent of this Territorializing Act is, if possible, worse than the principle. Establish it, and it is established, that a majority of States may expel a minority of States, and reduce them to Territories to be governed by Congress. Thus Massachusetts and Pennsylvania may some day have brought back upon them the rod they administer to others.

We give regularly all the news from Washington, but rarely have the heart to accompany it with comments. There is no good news from that quarter, nor likely to be for some time. A poet tells us, "Time will rust the sharpest sword, time will consume the strongest chord," and goes on to argue that "that which moulders hemp and steel, mortal arm and nerve must feel." But time, the "great restorer," has failed thus far to restore the Union, and, although called the "great assauger," has failed to assuage the frantic passions of the North.

We have one consolation in all our troubles: The Radicals may punish us, but with all their power, they cannot degrade us unless we choose to be particeps criminis.—Rich. Whig.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A SAFE INVESTMENT.

ALTHOUGH the business of all Trades and Professions have been considered Cash since the close of the war, we have given a special credit to many of our Friends and Patrons, some of whom have paid us nothing since that time, and as we can't afford to pay cash and give unlimited credit, this is to give notice that our accounts are now ready and that all are expected to call and settle the same without delay.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE, VIRGINIA.

IN FULL OPERATION.

THIS TIME-HONORED INSTITUTION IS ONCE more in successful operation, with a FULL CORPS OF PROFESSORS. The chairs of the several schools are filled by able and experienced men. There are five literary and scientific schools, viz: of ANCIENT LANGUAGES, MATHEMATICS, CHEMISTRY and NATURAL PHILOSOPHY, MORAL PHILOSOPHY and MODERN LANGUAGES. In addition to the above the Board of Trustees have established a school of Commercial Science, with the view of giving to the young men of the country a Business Education.

To graduates in all these schools, Diplomas are granted, and the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts are conferred upon students who accomplish a certain course. The high grade of scholarship formerly required is still maintained. We have a full Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus for the illustration of the subjects taught.

The location of the College is unsurpassed for health and geniality. It is situated midway between the mountains and the seaboard; and during a career of thirty-three years, and with thousands of young men in attendance, there has never been a death arising from malaria or other local cause. We profess to educate young men not only mentally and morally but physically also.

BOARD IS SIXTEEN DOLLARS PER MONTH.

Tuition from $40 to $90, according to the number of schools attended. $250 will cover expenses of board, tickets for three schools, matriculation and contingent fees for ten months.

Rooms in the College free of charge, but the student provides his own furniture, fuel and lights.—Young men who are preparing for the ministry and those disabled by the late war who are unable to pay their tuition, will be allowed to attend any or all of the schools free of charge.

This College is situated near Boydton, the county seat of Mecklenburg county, Va.

Arrangements are made to transport students from Ridgway Depot, on the Raleigh and Weldon Railroad, whilst a conveyance leaves Roanoke station on the Richmond and Danville Railroad, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and the Wolf Trap Depot, on the same road, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

We solicit a liberal patronage from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina, from the West, South and Southwest.

THE SENTINEL.

Monday Evening, Dec. 17, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—George T. Cooke has just received new style Hats and Miles & Son's new Shoes, &c. They are in demand and going off.

Williams & Haywood call special attention to their accounts. Also to articles for Christmas and others of general use.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., advertise house and lot for rent.

Maj. Wm. A. Blount, jr., offers a 4-horse farm for rent. Application can be made to him or to C. B. Root, Esq.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., offer a fine lot of Kid Gloves and fine Scarfs. These scarfs we know to be nice and cheap.

Jos. C. Hester offers the cheapest light now out. It is the non-explosive Light House oil.—It is burned in the common Kerosine lamp, with a new fixture, and is a most brilliant light. The oil is sold by the barrel at 55 cts. per gallon. Try it.

R. K. Ferrell has new arrivals of nice Groceries, good and cheap.

RANDOLPH MACON COLLEGE.—This old and popular institution will open its second term on the 8th of February 1867, under new auspices. President Thos. C. Johnson, with an able faculty, offer strong inducements to students. The old and favourable reputation of the College, it is hoped, will be fully maintained by the present Faculty.

TELEGRAPH LINES.—We have received nothing by the Telegraph lines to-day up to going to press. The lines are down, occasioned we presume by the severe sleet.

MORE FINE APPLES.—We are indebted to Prof. Kerr for a present of several of those fine Buff apples grown in the trans-montain counties.

THE FAIR.—We are glad to note that the Memorial Fair at the Yarborough House was a decided success from beginning to end. We have not learned the amount received by the ladies, but judge it was a very respectable sum.

WINTER.—We have had real winter since Friday last. Snow, sleet and rain fell considerably on Saturday night. To-day we have a cold, blustering day with a piercing wind from N. W.

We regret to learn that T. J. Judkins, Esq., one of the Commoners from Warren, has been confined to his room, at Ray's Hotel, by illness for some days, which has prevented his appearing in his seat. But for this his name would have appeared in the list against the Howard amendment. He is anxious also to record his vote in favor of a Penitentiary.

THE CLEVELAND ARGUS.—We regret to learn that this excellent Weekly has been compelled to suspend for want of competent support.

MECKLENBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.—We learn that the buildings of the N. C. Military Institute, at Charlotte, formerly conducted by Gen. Hill, have been secured by Rev. A. G. Stacy with the view of opening in January a first class female school under the above title. Mr. S. is an experienced instructor and will have a fine school.

The Territory of North Carolina.

The telegraphic dispatches, last night, inform us that a bill has been introduced into the House of Representatives, to reconstruct the State of North Carolina, upon an intensely "loyal," or radical programme. We are further informed that the bill was prepared by North Carolinians now in Washington, and introduced into Congress by Thaddeus Stevens at their request. We have not seen this bill, nor are we informed as to the particular provisions thereof; but we judge from that feature of it, relative to the manner of choosing delegates to frame a new Constitution, that none, but North Carolina radicals, will be at all pleased with it.

Should this bill become a law, or any other, degrading the State to a territorial condition, we sincely hope, that no native son of North Carolina will be trusted with any of the offices created.

Give us by all means the true soldiers of the Northern army, men who fought us bravely during the war, to rule over us rather than renegade sons of the South, who untrue to all parties and sections, are willing to secure their own personal aggrandisement by a sacrifice of the State.

We have more confidence in Thad. Stevens to-day and had rather be subjected to his sway than the rule of any one of the faction who claims to be a son of North Carolina, but who has lent himself to this effort to disgrace the State.

There is no telling the depth of infamy into which disappointment will plunge men of inordinate ambition. Forgetful of everything but a desire to wreak vengeance on those who have refused to confer power and place upon them, they stand ready, at all times, to ruin those who have not bowed down and worshipped at the shrine of their ambition. Short-sighted mortals they are, and to them the lessons of history have proved worse than useless.

What matters it to them, if their objects are attained, what history shall say of them, and into what depths of infamy their course shall plunge them? That they will be written down, now and hereafter, as unworthy, degenerate sons and traitors to the State of their nativity, who can doubt? May they sink so low, politically, that the hand of resurrection itself cannot reach them?—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

A SWEEP.—The Post-office Department, failing to receive answers to communications from a large number of old post-offices in North Carolina made in the way of inquiries about post masters who were indebted to the Department previous to the war, and relating to new appointments, has officially discontinued nearly two hundred offices, and will probably pursue the same course in similar cases. About one hundred and fifty new appointments have been made this week in different States, but none by Executive authority—they are of minor importance.—Baltimore Sun.

TELEGRAPHIC.

The Latest Dispatches Received.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.

Senator Roberts, of Texas, addressed a letter to his constituents to-day, advising that people to exercise the highest virtues in maintaining law and order, showing themselves worthy of a better fate than now seems to await them. He says to them, be hopeful, push industrial pursuits, develope the country and try to mend your fortunes.

The government Commissioners will leave here on Monday to examine and report on the fourth section of the Pacific railroad, beyond the Owaha.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.

Flour firmer, Southern 10,90a16,50. Wheat 3a5 higher. Corn 1a2 higher. Pork lower, 21,75a22 for new mess. Beef heavy. Lard lower, 12½a11¾. Whiskey dull. Naval stores firm. Peanuts quiet, 2,75 for Carolina. Rice 8¼a9½. Coffee quiet. Sugar dull.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.

The Internal Revenue, for the fiscal year to date, amounts to $158,700,939. Currency issued during the week $244,440. Total to date, deducting currency, returned and destroyed $29,8,139,929.

A VALUABLE BOOK.—In the United States Senate, Thursday, Mr. Howe offered the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on Printing:

Resolved, That the clerk prepare for publication a volume containing the colonial charters and various State Constitutions of each State of the United States, together with all amendments thereto, at any time in force, arranging the same in chronological order for each State; and that —— thousand copies thereof be provided for the use of the Senate.

THE TEST-OATH.—"Perley," the correspondent of the Boston Journal, says: "The Judges of the Supreme Court do not agree in their statements as to the decision of the court on the iron clad test-oath, but there are good reasons for believing that a majority of them have declared it unconstitutional. An opinion has been prepared, but not delivered. The personal influence of Chief Justice Chase, who sustains the oath, may prevent any immediate formal decision."

HON. JOHN BELL.—The Nashville Banner says:

"The many friends of the Hon. John Bell, of Tennessee, will be pleased to learn that the venerable statesman is in the enjoyment of unusual good health. He is at present ruralizing in the vicinity of Cumberland Iron Works, and occasionally joins in a deer hunt with a zest and spirit of the youngest."

THE NORTH CAROLINA "RECONSTRUCTION" BILL.—This bill introduced into Congress on Thursday by Thad. Stevens for the "reconstruction" of North Carolina is published in full in the Washington papers of yesterday. It does not contain any important feature except those reported by telegraph and published by us yesterday. Mr. Stevens in presenting said it "that he introduced it at the request of certain gentlemen of North Carolina." It is, therefore, not Stevens' bill but Holden's.—Richmond Enquirer.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES STEITER, Notary Public, Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES ETERS, 114 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY, 27 Pitt Street.
New York, April 7, 1866.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.

ON TUESDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY, 1867 the Subscriber, as Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel T Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the HOUSE tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands.

One tract containing about 457 acres, adjoining the first mentioned tract on the North, and that of Luke Lancaster on the South. This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 535 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.

One tract known as the "Arcola Tract" situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.

The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.

The Subscriber will take pleasure in shewing the land to any person who may wish to examine it
